Tutoring Experience

Since 2008, I have been teaching IB and A-Level History to students from diverse cultural and educational backgrounds. My experience covers a wide range of historical topics, from early civilisations to modern geopolitics. Over the years, I've successfully prepared students for exams while also guiding them on Extended Essays and coursework for IB and A-Level programmes.

In addition to one-on-one tutoring, I have worked with international schools in the UAE to develop customised history curricula. I specialise in making global conflicts and Middle Eastern history accessible and engaging. My approach has consistently helped students achieve top scores and a deep appreciation for historical analysis.
