Tutoring Experience

For the past 8 years, I have been teaching students across IB, A-Level, and IGCSE curriculums, focusing on English Literature and essay writing. I have worked closely with students to help them refine their critical thinking and analysis skills, preparing them for success in exams and assignments.

My experience has also included working with students on various types of coursework, including extended essays and personal statements. Through this work, I have helped students improve their writing and gain a deeper understanding of complex literary texts, ultimately helping them achieve academic success.
