Tutoring Experience

Over the past 18 years, I've worked with students in IB, A-Level, and IGCSE History, guiding them through complex historical periods and helping them develop critical thinking skills. My focus is on connecting historical events to broader contexts, allowing students to understand the significance and impact of each topic.

In addition to IB and A-Level History, I've also supported students in AP History, preparing them for exams with detailed analysis and insights. Many of my students have gone on to pursue degrees in history, politics, and international relations at top universities. I'm committed to helping each student excel in their studies and develop a lasting passion for history.

My tutoring approach is tailored to the individual needs of each student, ensuring that they gain confidence in their knowledge and essay-writing abilities. Through personalized feedback and support, I aim to help students achieve their full academic potential in history.
